It stars Kamal and Indika Sihina in lead roles along with Harshana Kumari, Priyantha Silva and Wasantha Kumaravila. Music composed by Keshan Perera. It is the 1271st Sri Lankan film in the Sinhala cinema. The film has received many awards including the Best Children's Film of the Year at the 52nd Sarasaviya Awards. The film is the second collaboration between Kamal and Indika Sihina. The film's title was derived from a song "Siri Raja Siri" (সিরি ১০০ রাজ) sung by Sitara Suresh & Soumya Swarnamali, which is a famous song in Sri Lanka. The film is an adaptation from the 1967 Indian Tamil film Thillana Mohanambal. The film has been remade in Telugu as Madhuryama Anukokunda Chirakulu. Plot A young girl named Thulani (Harshana Kumari) and her grandmother Kumari (Sarathneelia) live in a village in the Indian state of Karnataka. She hopes for a child of her own. Her grandmother sends Thulani to an orphanage in the village of their relatives. They are under the care of
