The Garfield City School District is moving to a new cafeteria and kitchen district. This kitchen has been in place since 2004, when it was renovated. The district is planning to replace it with a new system that will bring together all the ingredients for a healthy lunch, including several healthful options. "This is part of the district's 'Eat Well and Grow Well' initiative to promote healthy lifestyles among students and to prepare them for college and life after school," Garfield Superintendent Daniel Harless said. At a recent presentation, Harless and Garfield Food Service Director Charlin Harris explained that the kitchen will have a new ventilation system, better storage facilities, a new heating system and a meat cooler, along with many other improvements. The school board voted unanimously on March 12 to approve a district budget of $4.1 million for the project.
