A former managing director of women's fashion label Agent Provocateur has been sentenced to two years and four months in jail after being found guilty of possessing and distributing intimate images of her ex-boyfriend's partner. Jodie El Moudarres was sentenced in London on Wednesday. The 37-year-old was charged with nine counts of making, possessing and distributing indecent images of children - including images allegedly taken and distributed on her work computer. The court heard she "deliberately" deleted her emails before handing over the possession and distribution charges. El Moudarres, formerly of Stoke Newington, north London, used a peer to peer file-sharing site to distribute the images and was caught after detectives from Operation Predator found out about it while investigating a separate case. She had been working for Agent Provocateur since January 2013. A Crown Prosecution Service statement said: "The images in question were of a young girl, aged 11 or 12. "They were taken at private events. "Jodie El Moudarres is a self-employed fashion designer. She was arrested on 18 September 2015. "She was subsequently charged with nine counts of making, possessing and distributing indecent images of children. "Jodie El Moudarres, aged 37, from Stoke Newington, North London, pleaded guilty to all nine charges on 29 January 2016. "She deliberately deleted her emails before handing over the possession and distribution charges. "The images in question were of a young girl aged 11 or 12. They were taken at private events. "Jodie El Moudarres was working for Agent Provocateur from January 2013." Steve Chapman, prosecuting, said the victim had found the images on her computer and reported them to El Moudarres, who then lied to investigators. Jonathan Gayle, defending, said his client was aware of the images' existence, but was not the publisher. He said El Moudarres was an "outgoing and sociable person who works with children" and was "an amazing mother to her son" who was due to be sentenced in her next hearing. Mr Gayle said that El Moudarres had entered pleas of guilty on Tuesday. The

DjVu To JPG Converter Software is a powerful application for converting DjVu file to popular Portable Document Format (PDF or JPG). This utility can easily convert DjVu file to multiple image types (TIFF, JPG, GIF, PNG), BMP, EPS, EMF, PS, TGA, ICO, WMF. Extract meta data from DjVu files. You can use DjVu To JPG Converter Software directly without installation. As it says in the title, the location of the converter is a file named "Converter.exe" that is located within the main folder named "converter". This will open the file and you can then navigate to the Main section, where you can drag and drop all the DJVU files you wish to convert there. After that you simply click the Convert button. If you want the converted files to be placed in a folder of your own, you can add this folder to the "Where to" location under the "Convert DJVU files" field. Notes: You can open the file inside the folder but you cannot do that if the files have been deleted or moved without the files being deleted first. The program gives the possibility to convert to JPG, PDF, PNG, BMP, PS, EPS, TGA, GIF, ICO, EMF, WMF, BMP, TIF, PS and ICO formats. In the "Specify the output folder" field you can specify the name of the folder where the converted files will be placed. There is a checkbox that you can check if the conversion will also be performed on the text extracted from the files. In "Advanced" you can choose the maximum file size in bytes to convert to each file and the maximum number of files to convert at once. You can use the search facility to locate your files by specifying the exact file name. Once the conversion process is completed, you can preview all the files. The conversion of each file can take several minutes so be patient. The program is compatible with all the MS Windows OSes, all the modern browsers and with most modern mobile devices and phones. Integral to each process is a license key, for which a license key is included with the download. By using this method of downloading the media files, you guarantee that you are the owner of the license key and you
